Girl Recruitment:

1. As parents, we want the best for our children. We want our daughters to realize they have it in them to be compassionate and capable individuals who have the courage, confidence, and character to respect themselves and give back to their community. For more than 100 years, Girl Scouts has provided a program based on core values, which come from the Girl Scout Promise and Law. For generations, families have looked to Girl Scouts as a trusted ally that can create new experiences for your daughter and her friends. To get your girl started today, visit gsneo.org/join and select a troop from the opportunity catalog.
2. Girl Scouts teaches girls to take action for themselves, their communities, and the world. With us, girls have the opportunity to make a strong circle of friends and to learn to make the world a better place. Discover how your girl can make her mark at (date and time of event) or visit the troop opportunity catalog at gsneo.org/join.
3. You probably know that Girl Scouts sell cookies ... but we're so much more than that! Girl Scouts connects girls to a world of possibilities in a positive and inclusive, girl-led environment. We inspire girls to discover their passions and empower them to reach their full potential. While cookies, camping and badges are a traditional part of the Girl Scout experience, there are also opportunities for girls to explore their faith through Girl Scouting. When girls participate in badge work related to their religion, they gain new perspectives that help them to understand the importance of being honest, respectful and helpful to others. To get your girl started today, visit gsneo.org/join and select a troop from the opportunity catalog.
4. With us, she'll find the sparkle that makes her shine! Give your girl the opportunity to grow brighter by joining Girl Scouts at (date/time/place of event) or select a troop from the troop opportunity catalog at gsneo.org/join.
